UNEXPECTED COMPANY

This beautiful ship, the Bermuda Star, has been visible from Mattapoisett Harbor for more than a week and has been very much on our minds because of the danger she represents because of the rip in her hull. Thanks to photographer Peter Nelson of Mattapoisett, we have these close-ups of the ship with her passengers still lining the rail as they await transport off the grounded vessel. The ship had her bottom ripped on a reef shortly before passage through the Cape Cod Canal and began leaking fuel. A very fortunate (for us) north wind has kept the oil from reaching our harbor but the Elizabeth Island beaches have stained with fuel oil from her torn hull. The boat was moved to a point out in the bay that from a vantage point at the end of Long Wharf the angle was inside of Ned's Point Lighthouse although the ship was in the middle of Buzzards Bay in a southeasterly direction. It appeared close at night when it was lit up like a Christmas tree. All week long the kind north wind has brought us the finest weather of the season and has lessened the danger to our shores.

Aquaculture License Granted

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING JUNE 12, 1990-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

Robert M. Field of 100 Mattapoisett Neck Road was granted by Selectmen last Tuesday an aquaculture license renewal to grow shellfish by means of racks, rafts or floats in the water column above the land under the coastal waters of the town and the Commonwealth in an area that is a cove at the northeast side of Brandt Island Cove containing 3.5 acres.

The license is a renewal of the license granted on September 30, 1986 and is subject to certain conditions including: Mr. Field shall have the exclusive use of the area and the area within 10 feet of the racks, rafts or floats for the purpose of growing shellfish subject only to such public uses of the licensed area as are compatible with the aquaculture enterprise under this license; the term of the license shall be for a period of three years, from October 1, 1989 to September 30, 1992; Mr. Field shall have the licensed renewed if he applies to the town during the last six months of the term, after a hearing, unless the town finds he has failed to comply with the terms and conditions; Mr. Field shall plainly mark the boundaries of the area with marking approved by the harbormaster; he shall pay to the town an annual license fee of $87.50; upon 30 days notice, the town may, after a hearing, revoke this license for lack of substantial use of the licensed area or for fail-

Charles Prefontaine, spokesman, said the race will follow the same route as in the past few years. More information will be announced nearer to the date, he said. There were 400 contestants last year with 68 trophies in various categories. This year, Mr. Prefontaine said "we may get fewer entrants as we expect to have fewer categories, with 27 trophies."

HEARD A PROPOSAL by James Welch, New England Telephone Company marketing and sales representative, to install a Centrex system to accommodate all town offices. The proposal will be taken under advisement by the board.

Mr. Welch explained the system, its operation and its advantages over the present equipment. He said the system will be less expensive to operate mainly because the town hall is within a short distance of the central system on Hammond Street. Last April Mattapoisett changed over to the electronic service which is new here and to non-metropolitan areas. The town has 19 lines, including the police station, but not including the two local schools. In addition to the town hall's 17 lines, there is the water department and the highway department. The present cost is $574. per month. The cost of a 20-line Centrex system would be $467.90 per month; plus a one-time installation/equipment/setup/instruction cost of $3,500 and $1,227.52. There will be no need to add another employee, Mr. Welch said, as this answering set-up would be a back-up job for a present person's function.

INTO FAMILY EYE CARE

I've never had vision problems, but recently I'm having difficulty reading well up close. Why should this happen?

This is a problem very frequently encountered by people from age 40 on. What happens is that they lose their accommodating ability to change focal points from distance to near. The lens in the eye stiffens up as we progress in age and what happens is that it normally fixes itself at a distant focal length.

When this happens we need a little help to see up close and this is where a half eye or a bifocal would come in handy. Once you notice you are having problems you should make it a point to see an eye doctor.

The service offered would include call pickup, call waiting, call forwarding, conference calls and a detailed monthly bill. This service will tie everybody together; "you can call each other for a conference call inside or outside the network", Mr. Welch said.

There would also be a 10-year service agreement stating that the portion of the basic Centrex cost would not increase. There will also be a five-year warranty on the phones. He noted these older phones the town uses may last for a long time but if repairs are needed they will be costly as parts are hard to come by.

Mr. Welch added that the Public Utilities Commission is now considering a proposal to increase the telephone rates by 15 percent on lines other than Centrex and may go into effect July 1. He urged the Selectmen to take advantage of the installation before that date to prevent a rate increase.

The police station would be handled a little differently as they have the new phones and would need only the instruction and hookup. Mr. Welch said he had spoken to Police Chief James F. Moran who said he would support the proposal if it is in the best interest of the town and would participate in the operation.

four bids) to slope the east slope of the sanitary landfill with a three to one slope and to cover with an intermediate impervious material approved by the state. Mr. Bowman said J.M. has certification from Tibbetts' Engineering in Marion on the type of impervious materials cover, as well as a notice from Ron Michalski of Tighe and Bond, engineering firm working with the town and the state DEP on the landfill that the material is acceptable by the state. The JM firm will furnish the equipment as well as the material as Mattapoisett does not have the heavy equipment needed for the job.

Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney recommended Mr. Michalski be informed of the plans. "We need an engineer to testify before the state DEP that the cover material is approved. We need engineers' certification, then proceed." Mr. Barrows said he will contact Mr. Michalski the next day. Funds will come from the Health Board budget.

NOTED by Selectman Bernard F. Talty that he is concerned with the vault override which didn't pass. "We have to protect these records. We should consider asking the Chief to keep the town records in the new police station," Mr. Talty said. Selectmen will check with the chief.

NOTED A LETTER will be sent to the Lions' Club thanking the members for refurbishing the pavilion at the town beach.

Selectmen noted this appears to mean the selling of stamps and the mail boxes will continue to be in Mattapoisett.

Classic J Boat in Fairhaven

ENDEAVOUR, CUP CHALLENGER RENEWED, BEAUTIFUL & AWESOME

There will never be another racing machine like the great J boats that dueled each other for the America's Cup in the 1930s. These boats are known to us mainly as legend. One of the great ones to marvel at was at Kelley's Boatyard in Fairhaven last week. The British challenger Endeavour was on the ways there with her mast visible from one end of the Fairhaven waterfront to the other. These boats were built for one purpose only - to race for the America's Cup.

This J was the 1934 British challenger which was met by the New York Yacht Club's defender Rainbow; Rainbow won, 4 races to 2. You can see from the workmen on deck the size of the craft. When they came to Mattapoisett on the annual summer cruise, the Js had to anchor far out of the harbor because they drew so much water they could not enter. Endeavour visited Mattapoisett twice in the summer of 1937, first with the Eastern Yacht Club fleet in July, and again after the Cup races in August when she accompanied the new challenger Endeavour II on the N.Y. Yacht Club cruise. This visit also included the 1937 Cup winner, (4 races to 0), the 135 foot J design "Ranger".

The Endeavour has come back to glory fro a long patch of wear and neglect that was leading to a sad end in France. Now restore to her awesome beauty, she calls Newport, Rhode Island, her home port and so the circ is complete. This boat is one of the finest of modern history.

Most of us prefer to be in a settled state, sure of what we have, who we are, and what is coming. We know that reality runs counter to this. We continually travel, inwardly and outwardly, and it is not always comfortable. The transitions can be terrifying.

We will look at the passage in Genesis which tells the story of Jacob's wandering. He needed to run from his brother's wrath, and his journey was made alone into an area he did not know. It was transition for both his body and soul, one with which we can identify as we examine our personal lives as well as the major changes taking place in our political and physical world.

The graduation scene extended to the local area Hospice last week as ten new volunteers graduated from an intensive 10-week training program. Certificates were awarded by Executive Director Mary Luby, RN, and Jean Briggs, Coordinator of Volunteers, at an informal outdoor luncheon at the Hospice office on Wareham's Main Street.

The 25-hour course, held at Tobey Hospital, was presented by Hospice staff and area professionals, and covered a wide range of subjects relating to the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of terminally ill patients and their families. To the Voters of Rochester:

The Town Meeting has offered for your consideration an override question on the Old Rochester Regional District School budget in the amount of $98,736. This amount represents 5.5 percent of Rochester's share of the assessment and was agreed to as the amount to be subject to override in the towns of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester. The Town of Marion has voted to approve their share, and the Town of Mattapoisett has rejected its override question. The 6.8 percent increase in the budget was supported by the Old Rochester Regional Advisory Committee, and this method of dealing with the assessment was agreed to by that committee and the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee.

Additionally, the Old Rochester Regional Advisory Committee agreed to allow the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee to underestimate receipts by 10 percent of the 1989-90 Cherry Sheet, or $118,500. to compensate for any 1990-91 shortfall in state receipts. This was suggested because by agreement between the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee and the Old Rochester Regional Advisory Committee, the District has been operating for the past several years with a very low excess and deficiency fund. If the District receives level state aid, the school committee has agreed not to assess the towns for the $118,500. Of the override, $41,331.13 represents Rochester's share of the $118,500. If the Old Rochester Regional District receives level funding from the state, the actual amount of the override would be reduced to $51,660.04. As Treasurer of the Old Rochester Regional School District, I am passing on this information to you so that you may make an informed vote. The $92,991.17 amount represents a $262,000 cut across the budget. If state aid is received, the $51,660.04 amount represents a $148,113.91 cut across the budget.

We have been witness recently to the unfortunate cuts being made in school budgets in neighboring communities. We hope that you will continue to support

Peek in the Foliage

Look hard at this potted plant and you may see a small courageous mother sitting on 3 eggs in a nest she has built in the center of a busy greenhouse. Mother apparently decided that this sheltered spot in the warmth of the roofed chamber was an excellent spot to bring up her brood and so there she sits in the middle of Kenny's Farm Stand hothouse. She judged her host well because the plant has been marked as not for sale and patrons are asked to avoid disturbing the family-to-be. The enlargement shows that trusting as she is, Mother Robin keeps a beady eye on these humans who pass her nest constantly.

Flag Burning Permits

Editorial, DCJ

In the eyes and minds of the people of the United States, the Supreme Court has diminished itself by its decision on the United States Flag.

The dictionary defines speech as intelligible sound. Speech and language, written and spoken, contain the collected knowledge of the world. By this means we exchange our thoughts, express our views, debate and record. It's one of civilization's noble achievements - one that distinguishes man from beast. How the Supreme Court can confuse creative expression with pillaging and burning is outrageous. Our Constitution protects freedom of speech. It does not protect burning in the streets. To say that both are one and the same you have to have the mind of a Supreme Court Justice.

That decision is made and we have to live with it. The Constitution should remain unaltered because we were blessed, at the time it was written, by men of superior intelligence. It is not possible that they meant that speech and destruction are one and the same thing. The Constitution has stood the test of time. It is not that document that needs altering. Once that process starts who knows what sort of shambles will result considering the contemporary state of wisdom.

Instead, I think the cities and towns of the country should enforce the open burning law to the fullest. Any citizen desiring to burn the U.S. Flag should be required to obtain a permit to do so. If it is done privately that is completely correct being the way to dispose of the flag. If it is to be done publicly in the streets the flag burning permit should require that the burner hire police protection and observe all proper safety precautions such as having fire equipment stand by so that the public should not be stuck with the bill for the protection of life and property.

Mattapoisett Board of Appeals

DECISIONS ANNOUNCED

A Special Permit application to the Mattapoisett Board of Appeals was denied on May 10th to Thomas and Barbara Ferreira, 9 West West Hill Road for their property located at the corner of Anchorage Way and Shady Lane for construction of a single-family residence on a vacant undersize lot.

The applicants did not submit a surveyor's plot plan showing the proposed location of a structure on the property, nor did they submit any construction drawings of the proposed structures. A number of landowners in the neighborhood of the retainer lot appeared at the public hearing in opposition to the application.

The lot in question has changed over the years since before the adoption of the zoning by-law in 1967. At that time, there were three separate contiguous lots, when each of the lots met the 15,000 square foot minimum lot size requirement of the adopted by-law.

The zoning by-law changed in 1973 and the property became part of the new RR30 District. At this point, each of the three lots became lawfully nonconforming as to size and were entitled to the grandfather protection. The Appeals Board was notified by the applicants' representative that the three lots came into the single ownership of Fairhaven Savings Bank on November 6, 1975. This transfer made the three lots one lot for all zoning purposes, containing 55,436 sq. ft. The three separate lots lost their identity and grandfather protection as nonconforming and became subject to the 30,000 square foot minimum lot size requirement.

On June 17, 1982, the Bank deeded out 36,684 square feet of the single lot. By this deed out, the bank retained and created an undersized "retainer lot" of 16,752 square feet. On December 2, 1986 the bank deeded out this undersized lot to the applicants (Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ferreira). Three years later it is the subject of this application.

The Appeals Board found and rules that the development of the areas surrounding the applicants' lot has been on lots that are a combination of two or more former 15,000 square foot lots and residences have been constructed in the area on lots of 30,000 square feet or more. The board finds that the surrounding areas have not been "previously developed by the construction of structures on lots generally smaller than 30,000 square feet"; and also finds that the "standard of the neighborhood" now requires lots as large as 30,000 square feet. The proposed construction on the undersized lot would not be in harmony with the intent of the zoning by-law and will be detrimental to the established and future character of the neighborhood. The board notes that the areas around the applicants' land have a history of surface water drainage problems that continues to be the focus of scrutiny by the Board of Health, the Conservation Commission and the Department of Environmental Protection.

The present garage has a street setback of five feet and a side setback of 2.2 feet. The structure is lawfully nonconforming. The reconstruction will enlarge the one-story accessory building to a one-story, two-car garage. The garage will be extended four feet to the rear and the workshop will be extended 25 feet to the rear. The proposed expansion to the rear, the existing street, and side setback nonconformity will not be increased.

Due to the portions of the lot occupied by wetlands, ledge and a sloping grade to the wetlands, it is not feasible to place a reconstructed accessory structure on any other part of the lot. A literal enforcement of the setback requirements would involve substantial hardship, financial or otherwise, to the petitioners. Relief is granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially derogating the intent of the zoning by-law.

Q. Will video games harm my children's eyes?
A. Actually, video games may help sharpen your children's vision rather than harm it but only if they are played in moderation.
Staring at a video screen for hours on end puts the eyes under great stress. That can lead to headaches, fatigue, blurring vision and, in children and teens, may contribute to nearsightedness.
Played in moderation, however, video games can help sharpen vision skills used in school, on the job and in sports. These include eye movement skills; eye-hand coordination; visual reaction time; visualization; and side vision awareness.
Optometrists don't specify how many hours a day of video game play would be considered moderate play. Instead, they recommend five minute rest breaks for every 30 minutes of play. During rest breaks, players should look at things in the distance.

ORR Career Search

ORR students in Judy Johnson's 11th grade English class have spent time learning about careers and long-range planning. Mrs. Johnson created a multi-faceted unit for her students that combined their English skills with a look at the real world of work. Students, many of whom are in the Tech Prep 2+2 Program with Bristol Community College, were required to do extensive research, writing and interviewing.

Mrs. Johnson began her students with two papers entitled "Who Am I?" and "Where Am I Going?" This provided students with time to focus on personal goals and interests. The next step involved resume writing and completion of job applications. Each student was required to research thoroughly a career of interest and then write a term paper. The research included looking up information in The Occupational Outlook Handbook, Chronicle Guidance briefs, and magazine articles. Students were also required to make on-site visits or interview an individual in their chosen occupation.

All job applications were submitted to the Guidance Department and each student was interviewed by a counselor. The interviews were formal job interviews that required appropriate attire and behavior, knowledge of the job being sought and questions for the interviewer. Students were formally evaluated as potential employees for a specific job.

During the career project Bruce Tamlyn, Director of Career Placement at Bristol Community College, spoke to Mrs. Johnson's class. The main focus of his talk was identifying personal goals. Each individual has his/her own star to follow but not everyone identifies that star at the same time and some may take longer than others. The important point is to stay with the search and not become discouraged.

In evaluating the career unit the students found it to be extremely beneficial. Many recommended a similar unit be taught in grades nine or ten. As expected, their least favorite part was writing the research paper.

Many found they were very nervous about the interview portion because it was conducted in a very professional manner. Once it was over many felt as Sarah Hunt did when she said, "There is no need to be nervous if you are prepared." Robert Fernandes and Carl Briggs feel the project has prompted them to look at alternative careers. Even though Corie Gladis has had a specific career in mind for some time she felt the interview gave her a "taste of what it is going to be like in the future". Students made many helpful suggestions for additions to the program such as videos on specific careers, more guest speakers, field trips and release

The members of Plymouth County Wildlands Trust (PCWT) extend an invitation to the public to join them in one of their regularly scheduled monthly walks.

The next local excursion is scheduled for Sunday, July 1st, at the Emery Preserve East in Plymouth.

The trail will cover steep glacial terrain in pine-oak, and pine barren woods. Other natural features include a swamp which was formerly the site of a cranberry bog, and the lovely pondshore of Cotton Pond. Parking is limited, and reservations are necessary. Call (617) 934-9018 or (508) 224-3587.

Please be attentive to the weather and come prepared. Insect repellent, and sure footwear are recommended.

Meet at the intersection of Clark Road and Long Pond Road, less than a half mile off Route 3 at exit 3.

Plymouth County Wildlands Trust is a non-profit, land conservation organization founded in 1973. It now protects over 1,100 acres of land in ten towns in Plymouth and Barnstable Counties. New members are always welcome.

Footloose at Heritage

Footloose will perform at Heritage Plantation of Sandwich on Sunday, June 24th, at 2:00 p.m. A popular Cape group, Footloose plays a wide variety of music from golden oldies to swing, to the latest contemporary sounds. This group replaces the Cape Cod Chorale, originally scheduled for that date.

Membership, as well as admission tickets to Heritage Plantation, will be honored for this show and includes admission to all the Museum buildings, exhibitions and grounds. Tickets are $7. for adults, $6. for seniors 65 years or older, children under 12 are $3.00, five and under are free. High Tea & Art Exhibit

TO BENEFIT CHILD & FAMILY SERVICE

To aid area children in need, the New Bedford Child and Family Service (NBC&F) will host a high tea and art exhibit tour on Friday, June 29th, from 2 to 4 p.m. at Hidden Bay in South Dartmouth. Both the tea and tour are past of NBC&F's fund-raising campaign, "Helping Children is a Work of Art". The general public is invited, and tickets can be purchased for $12.50 per person.

The high tea will be in the spirit of the formal teas popular during the Great Gatsby era. Under a canopy decorated 1920s style, guests can enjoy refreshments served by volunteers in full period costumes. A restored 1920s roadster will be on display, and songs and music from the '20s and '30s will be played throughout the afternoon.

As part of the "Helping Children is a Work of Art" fund-raiser, guests can tour the Hidden Bay galleries to view or purchase the works of southeastern Massachusetts' most respected artists.

The fair features quality crafts from New England and beyond, delicious food, an art and photography show, and non-stop entertainment on the Town Hall steps.

A highlight this year will be an exhibit on the Unitarian Church lawn of art work by the children of Tosashimuzu, the town's Japanese sister city. Barbara McCoy is coordinating this exhibit.

Booths at the fair will display a variety of crafts, with something sure to please each fairgoer. Some unusual offerings include beeswax candles, pressed flowers, herbs, painted china, miniatures, beaded scarfs, banners and decoys.

Food booths will serve traditional baked goods, cotton candy, burgers and hot dogs, and seafood, as well as more exotic fare -- Polish specialties, Portuguese cacoila and favas, and Greek pastry.

Many Fairhaven organizations and churches will be represented at the Fair. Area banks will distribute balloons, paint children's faces, and sponsor a coloring contest. There will be games for the youngsters on the grounds, as well as an artist sketching portraits, and fire engine rides.

Ongoing diversions will include Scott Cannon, mime extraordinaire, roving the center, and a juried art show on the southwest lawn of the Unitarian Church. Ribbons and $250. in cash prizes will be awarded.

"Our members should be very pleased that their long hours of effort have been recognized. This is the first year we have submitted any of our projects for consideration and I am very proud of them", Mrs. Bacchieri said.

The awards are as follows: State awards: 1) Civic project: A certificate of merit for the lighthouse landscaping, an ongoing project of the club. Members not only plant the area, they also spend hours weeding, watering and snipping dead blossoms to encourage bloom and beauty at a site that has become a community landmark. 2) Home flower show award: for REFLECTIONS, the standard flower show and home tour sponsored by the club to mark the town's 250th birthday celebration in 1989. The bulk of the proceeds were given back to the 250th anniversary committee to help defray costs of the celebration as well as to the Wareham Historical Society as a token for the use of two of their buildings and for historical preservation.

3) Public relations: A certificate of merit for the club's float entry into the town's 250th birthday parade. 4) Publications: A certificate of merit for the 24 month calendar cookbook called "Light House Keeping" which included recipes, gardening and household tips.
